STATE FARM CENTER

Illinois has an outstanding home in State Farm Center. Known as Assembly Hall from its construction in 1963 to 2013, the iconic arena was renamed State Farm Center on April 29, 2013, with the announcement of a 30-year, $60 million naming rights agreement. State Farm Center underwent a complete renovation from 2014-16, dubbed the Illinois Renaissance. The $169.5-million project included a renovated seating bowl; the addition of four levels of premium seating; improved restrooms and concessions; a team hall of fame; air conditioning and many other amenities. Construction occurred around each Fighting Illini basketball season, with the project completed in the fall of 2016.

The historic building opened on March 2, 1963, and continues to attract attention for its design and construction. Four hundred feet across, it at one time was one of only two edge-supported domes in the world. The roof is supported by 614 miles of one-quarter inch steel wire wrapped at the base of the dome under intensive pressure. The architect was Max Abramovitz, a distinguished University of Illinois alumnus.

Illinois opened play at State Farm Center on March 4, 1963, with a 79-73 victory over Northwestern. Since that first game, the Illini have accumulated a 701-197 (.781) record. Illinois has sold out a total of 308 games at State Farm Center. UI has ranked in the top 25 nationally in home attendance 44 of the last 46 years, including 11th during the 2024-25 season. Fans help turn State Farm Center into a sea of orange for every Illini home game, with practically every person in attendance proudly wearing orange. That, combined with the Orange Krush student cheering section surrounding the court, gives the Illini one of the best home court advantages in the country.

The University of Illinois record book is your source for information on the Fighting Illini men's basketball program. The Athletics Communication staff is here to help you in your coverage of Illinois Basketball. Don't hesitate to call any member of our staff if you need assistance during the course of the year.

To ensure you are receiving the latest information, confirm with Illinois SID Derrick Burson that you are on the primary basketball media distribution list (email: burson@illinois.edu).

HOME GAME CREDENTIALS
Media and photo credential and parking requests for Illinois home games should be made online at fightingillini.com/media. Media season credential requests should be made by Nov. 1. Single-game requests should be made at least one week prior to the date of the game. Single-game credentials must be picked up prior to the game at media will-call.

Illinois associate athletics director Derrick Burson will review each application and individuals will receive an email notification following that review. No credential requests will be accepted over the phone.

Due to limitations in seating numbers, all requests will be prioritized according to published circulation numbers. Be specific when requesting the type of credential needed, either media or photo. Any non-working people in possession of a media credential will be asked to turn over the credential and leave the press area. Spouses, dates, non-workers and children are not permitted in the press seating areas. Media agencies that violate this policy may not be issued credentials for future games.

ROAD/NEUTRAL SITE CREDENTIALS
Illinois media will be informed of the specific policies for credentials at each road/neutral site game by Illinois SID Derrick Burson. The process at each site varies between media making their own requests through an online system or via email, or with Burson collecting traveling media credential requests and submitting to the host school.

The specific number of credentials to be issued to Illinois media will vary for each game, and due to limited space will be prioritized in the same fashion as a home game.

CREDENTIAL USE
Working credentials are subject in all respects to the Media Credential Criteria and Policies set forth by the Big Ten Conference and University of Illinois as in effect from time to time. Working credentials are issued for the sole purpose of providing facility access to an accredited agency's employee who has a legitimate working function (media or game service) in conjunction with this game or games. It is non-transferable and non-assignable and any duplication or alteration of this document is prohibited. Any unauthorized use of the credential subjects the bearer to ejection from the facility and prosecution for criminal trespass.

Any secondary use of any picture, photograph, audio description, video, film/tape, drawing or other description of a game taken or made by the accredited organization or individual to whom this credential has been issued (including, but not limited to use in delayed editorial or non-editorial advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the University of Illinois or the Big Ten Conference. Nothing in these terms and conditions authorizes or allows bearer to violate any of the trademarks, copyright and other proprietary rights of the University of Illinois or the Big Ten Conference. A maximum of two minutes (2:00) of game video footage (without audio) may be utilized during the one-week period following the conclusion of the game solely within regularly scheduled bona fide news programming distributed via television, and may not be distributed via the internet, wireless or other forms of media.

LIVE IN-GAME BLOGGING AND ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION
Media Agencies and Representatives shall not transmit or display any real-time video or audio, while the Event or live network presentation of the Event is in progress. Photographs or any text-based accounts or descriptions of the Event (including without limitation, any web log, blog, online journal or other web-based publication) during the event is only allowed with the advance written permission of the University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

WEBSITES
Media credentials are issued for individuals who are affiliated with websites for national or regional television and news media organizations, for institutions that are conference members and non-conference opponents, for the Big Ten Conference. The University of Illinois reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization.

STATE FARM CENTER
State Farm Center will open to the media two-and-a-half hours before each game. The Northeast Entrance is the entry point for all media. Once you enter the arena, turn left and at your first left take the stairs or elevator down one flight to the media room (located on Mezzanine Level). Wireless internet access is available in the media room where all press can work pregame and postgame.

PARKING
A limited number of media parking passes are available for men's basketball games at State Farm Center. Media parking passes will be issued for either the Northeast Lot, located on Fourth Street, or Lot E-14, located between First and Oak streets. The issuance of passes will be done on a priority basis with media who cover the University of Illinois basketball team on a regular basis holding the highest priority. Requests will then be prioritized according to circulation for newspapers/websites and coverage area for radio and television. To avoid game traffic, media are encouraged to arrive at least 45 minutes prior to tip-off.

WI-FI
IllinoisNet_Guest is the wireless internet network all media will use. Access to this network is available throughout State Farm Center, including the media work room and all press seating areas inside the arena.

All devices must connect using the 5GHz band, as 2.4GHz frequency is not available in the arena. Some older laptops will not have the ability to connect to 5GHz. Media should confirm with their organization's IT department in advance that they can connect to Wi-Fi using 5GHz. If a device does not have 5GHz capability, media will need to bring a cellular hotspot.

Media having trouble connecting to the IllinoisNet_Guest network should refer to the step-by-step instructional sheet available at the arena. Please contact a UI Athletics Communication representative if wireless assistance is still needed.

PHOTOGRAPHY
All photographers must work from within the designated areas behind the baselines of the playing court. The University of Illinois follows NCAA and Big Ten guidelines regarding event photography. Photo locations for participating teams and primary media outlets are assigned by the UI Athletics Communication Office, with remaining spots available on a first-come, first-served, basis until all positions are taken.

All photographs are to be used in coverage of Illinois basketball and cannot be sold for any commercial enterprise benefiting the photographer. Should photos be sold commercially, credential privileges could be terminated.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCES
The University of Illinois will utilize the media room, located on the Mezzanine Level on the Northeast side of State Farm Center, for postgame press conferences.

Following the game and a brief cooling off period, press conference order will typically begin with the visiting head coach, followed by select Illinois student-athletes, and concluding with Illinois head coach Brad Underwood.

If no media who cover the visiting team are in attendance, the visiting coach will typically not participate in the press conference.

Interviews with student-athletes from the visiting team – and the visiting coach when not participating in the press conference – must be arranged through the visiting team SID. Those interviews will be conducted in the north tunnel outside the visiting team locker room.

Illinois' postgame for road/neutral site games will begin with an Underwood press conference and follow with selected players outside the visiting team locker room.

POSTGAME INFORMATION
Media are strongly encouraged to use the official University of Illinois athletics website, fightingillini.com to access the box score after home games. Updated Illinois season statistics also will be available online following each game.

Media can access the direct livestats feed of all home games at illinois.statbroadcast.com.

All persons wishing to receive releases, stats, or box scores should retrieve the information off the official UI athletics website at fightingillini.com. To receive releases via email, contact Derrick Burson.

MEDIA BOX
In addition to information on fightingillini.com, the Illinois SID office has also created a Media Box where media can download all materials necessary for covering Fighting Illini Basketball. The media box contains press conference videos, game notes, box scores, season and career statistics, action photos, headshots, team photos, record book, rosters, pronunciations guides, logos, and more. Please contact Derrick Burson for access to the Media Box.

INTERVIEW POLICIES
All interview requests for Illinois players, head coach Brad Underwood and members of the coaching staff must be cleared in advance through Derrick Burson in the Illinois Athletics Communication Office. Please give at least 24 hours advance notice for interview requests. Student-athletes are not available on the day of scheduled competition until after the event is completed. Players have been instructed not to talk to media who have not coordinated their requests through Athletics Communication.

COACH UNDERWOOD INTERVIEWS
The media will have an opportunity to interview Brad Underwood prior to every game, typically the day before the game, although the travel schedule could impact that in rare occasions.

Prior to the majority of home games, Underwood will hold a press conference in the media room at State Farm Center.

Prior to road/neutral site games – and home games when the team is not able to practice at State Farm Center due to arena scheduling conflicts – Underwood will hold media availability at the Ubben Basketball Practice Complex.

Media will be alerted to the specific time for each pregame availability via email from Burson.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS
Select players will be available to the media prior to every game on one designated day, either before or after practice, at a time and location to be dictated by the practice and travel schedule.

Prior to each home game, select players will be available on the court at State Farm Center, or in the tunnel area if the court is not available.

Prior to road/neutral site games, select players will be available at the Ubben Basketball Practice Complex.

Media will be alerted to the day, time and location of player interviews via email from Derrick Burson.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE
Most practices will be held at the Ubben Basketball Practice Complex, except for days when the team will practice at State Farm Center. Practices are generally closed, although media could be allowed the opportunity to watch portions of practice periodically throughout the season at the discretion of the head coach.

No video or photos of practice are permitted. Please note that ALL team areas at both State Farm Center and Ubben – including locker room, film room, weight room and training room – are off limits to members of the media.

Illinois' game day shootarounds are closed to the media and only available to the television announcers broadcasting the game.

FIGHTINGILLINI.COM
Illinois releases, statistics, audio and video of press conferences and live radio coverage of Fighting Illini games are available on the official University of Illinois athletics website, fightingillini.com. In addition to men's basketball, live audio and video is available for football, women's basketball, volleyball and baseball, and the coaches' radio show broadcasts.

BRAD UNDERWOOD RADIO SHOW
The Brad Underwood Radio Show airs statewide on the Fighting Illini Sports Network. The show originates from Papa Del's Pizza Factory in Champaign and is hosted by Illini play-by-play announcer Brian Barnhart. It airs in-season most Mondays from 7-8 p.m. A complete schedule of the show will be listed in the weekly basketball notes update.

BUSEY BANK ILLINI SPORTS NETWORK

(L-R): Brian Barnhart and former Illini greats Deon Thomas and Doug Altenberger will broadcast all the action this season on the Fighting Illini Sports Network.

The 56-station Busey Bank Illini Sports Network brings Illinois basketball to fans across the state and Midwest with Brian Barnhart, Deon Thomas and Doug Altenberger calling the action from courtside.

Barnhart is in his 24th season as the "Voice of the Illini" after a long stint in professional baseball, including two years as the play-by-play voice of the Anaheim Angels. Barnhart serves as the voice of the Busey Bank Illini Sports Network, providing play-by-play coverage of football and men's basketball and as the host of the statewide coaches call-in programs held weekly during the season.

A native of nearby Tolono, Barnhart graduated from Unity High School and Liberty University before beginning a 15-year career in professional baseball in 1986. He served as the play-by-play voice of the Lynchburg Mets and Salem Buccaneers before moving up to the Oklahoma City 89ers, the Class AAA affiliate of the Texas Rangers, from 1988-94. Barnhart did high school football and other sport play-by-play for 11 years and was also the voice for Oklahoma Baptist basketball from 1992-94 and Oklahoma City Blazers minor league hockey in 1993. From 1996-98, he handled news, sports and play-by-play at WWLS in Oklahoma City.

In 1998, Barnhart was named the play-by-play announcer for the Angels and spent two full seasons with the American League club before returning to the Champaign-Urbana area in 2000. He currently is a news and sports announcer at WDWS-AM 1400 in Champaign.

During the 2007 season, Barnhart was honored by the Illinois Broadcasters Association with the Silver Dome Award for Best Sports Play-by-Play for his call of Illinois' football upset of No. 1 Ohio State. He received the Silver Dome again in 2008 for his call of the Illini's ninth straight Braggin' Rights win over Missouri, and earned a third-straight Silver Dome in 2009 for his play-by-play description of Illinois' school-record come-from-behind win at Clemson. Barnhart was named the 2008 Illinois Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association, becoming just the second downstate sportscaster to win the award since 1959.

Former UI standouts Thomas and Altenberger are in their ninth season with the Busey Bank Illini Sports Network, splitting the season schedule to handle expert analyst duties.

The all-time leading scorer in Illinois history, Thomas registered 2,129 points during his four-year tenure from 1991-94. He also finished his career ranking second on the UI all-time rebounds list with 846 (now fourth) and as Illinois' leader in blocked shots with 177 (now second). The Chicago native was a three-time team MVP and four-time All-Big Ten selection, and was a 2019 inductee into the Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame.

Altenberger starred for the Fighting Illini from 1983-87, amassing 1,271 points to currently rank 28th on the career scoring list. He was named team MVP as a junior in 1985 and was the Illini's second-leading scorer as a senior in 1987, averaging 13.6 points while shooting 47.5 percent from 3-point range.

The statewide Busey Bank Illini Sports Network is managed by Fighting Illini Sports Properties and encompasses all sponsorship and operational elements. Busey Bank Illini Sports Network programming includes pregame and postgame shows around live football and men's basketball games, plus coverage of women's basketball, volleyball and baseball, along with the "Illini Today" daily report.

The "Brad Underwood Show" can be heard in-season, statewide on the Busey Bank Illini Sports Network on Mondays at 7 p.m.

Brad Underwood has reinvigorated Illinois Basketball, bringing the Fighting Illini back to the national stage and building a championship program during his tenure in Champaign.

Underwood is the 18th head coach in Illinois history, hired in March 2017 as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach. He has won more than 68 percent of his games during his 12 years as a Division I head coach, recording 10 seasons with at least 20 wins. Underwood has made nine appearances in the NCAA Tournament, with a 10th precluded by the cancelation of the 2020 postseason due to COVID-19.

The Big Ten has been the nation's preeminent conference in recent years. Yet no team has fared better during this stretch than the Fighting Illini, who are 81-39 in Big Ten play the last six years of the Underwood era. Over that time, Illinois is tied for the most wins in league play (81) while owning the most league road wins (34) and tied for the most regular season and conference tournament wins combined (88). The Illini are the only program, meanwhile, with a winning Big Ten record in each of the last six years.

The 81 victories in Big Ten play mark the winningest six-year run in school history, with Underwood claiming Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons (16 in 2021, 15 in 2022), three of the top five (14 in 2024), four of the top eight (13 in 2020), and five of the top 15 (12 in 2025) during this stretch.

Underwood has led Illinois to three Big Ten championships in the last five years, tied for most in the conference. He is the lone Illini coach, one of three active league coaches, and one of seven coaches in conference history to win multiple Big Ten Tournament titles, hoisting trophies in 2021 and 2024. He also directed the Illini to the 2022 Big Ten regular season crown, and in addition led Illinois to the most wins in the league in 2021.

Underwood's three Big Ten titles is tied for second-most in program history and trails only Harry Combes, who totaled four over his 20-year career. Underwood has joined Lou Henson as the only coaches in school history to lead the Orange and Blue to at least five consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances. His sixth, meanwhile, was precluded by the cancellation of the 2020 postseason due to COVID-19.

Illinois is one of only three Big Ten teams, and 13 teams nationally, to participate in each of the last five NCAA Tournaments. Illinois has earned a top 4 seed three times during this stretch, highlighted by the fourth No. 1 seed in school history in 2021. Illinois is one of 12 programs to advance in NCAA Tournament play at least four of the last five years highlighted by its 2024 run to the Elite Eight, the first Regional Final appearance for the UI program since 2005.

2024-25
Underwood is coming off another successful season in 2025, his eighth in Champaign. Despite losing all five starters and its top eight leading scorers from an NCAA Elite Eight team in 2024, Illinois spent the majority of the 2024-25 season ranked in the Top 25, totaled 22 victories on the year, made its fifth straight NCAA Tournament appearance – advancing to the Round of 32 – and finished the year ranked 17th in kenpom. Perhaps its most impressive feat is that despite playing a top-10 rated schedule, Illinois recorded its sixth straight 20-win regular season, standing as one of just four teams nationally to carry that streak.

Underwood's 2025 squad was once again known for its prolific offense. Illinois averaged 83.6 points per game, its highest scoring average in the last 31 years. The Illini topped 80 points 22 times, going 21-1 in those games. Standout offensive performances included the 109-77 win at No. 9 Oregon, the largest margin of victory in NCAA history by a road team against a top-10 opponent, the 106-94 win over Iowa to set the program's Big Ten Tournament single-game scoring record, and the 94-69 win at Indiana that marked the most points ever scored by a visiting team in a regulation game at Assembly Hall.

The Illini were led by newcomers, with the roster ranking 300th nationally and second-to-last among power five teams in Division I experience. Two of those newcomers would go on to make history, as freshmen Kasparas Jakucionis and Will Riley became Illinois' first ever one-and-done players when they were selected back-to-back in the first round of the 2025 NBA Draft. It marked the first time in 20 years, and just the third time in program history, that Illinois had two first-round picks in the same draft.

Illinois hoisted a conference trophy for the third time in Underwood's seventh year at the helm in 2024, winning the Big Ten Tournament Championship in Minneapolis. Underwood became the first Illinois coach to win multiple Big Ten Tournaments, claiming two in a span of just four years. That followed a runner-up finish during the regular season where the Illini went 14-6 in conference play.

The Illini were 29-9 overall, with the 29 victories ranking as the third-winningest season in program history. Illinois earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and won three games to advance to the East Regional Final, marking the program's first Elite Eight appearance since 2005. Upon making his first trip to the NCAA second weekend, Underwood led the Orange and Blue to a victory over No. 2 seed Iowa State in the Sweet 16 as Illinois recorded just its second NCAA Tournament win ever over a top-two seed.

Illinois ended the year at No. 6 in the Associated Press poll, marking its second top-10 final ranking in four years and fourth top-25 finish in five years. The 2023-24 offense was Illinois' most efficient in the kenpom era, placing third nationally at 1.255 points per possession. The Illini averaged 83.4 points per game, its highest scoring average in 30 years. Illinois had two first-team All-Big Ten selections for the second time in the Underwood era in seniors Terrence Shannon Jr. and Marcus Domask. Shannon was the nation's third-leading scoring at 23.0 ppg – the highest average by an Illini player in 51 years – while Domask averaged 15.9 points, 5.0 rebounds and 3.9 assists.

Illinois had another successful season in Underwood's sixth year in Champaign. Despite replacing all five regular starters, its top five leading scorers, and a total of 10 players from the previous year's Big Ten championship squad, Illinois went 20-13 overall and finished fifth in the Big Ten (11-9) in 2023, securing a third straight NCAA Tournament bid and fourth straight 20-win season.

Illinois ranked in the bottom 25 nationally in minutes continuity from the previous year. Of those last 25 teams, Illinois was the only one to earn a bid in the 2023 NCAA Tournament. The Illini were one of just two teams with multiple kenpom top-10 non-conference wins away from home, posting dramatic comeback wins over UCLA in Las Vegas and Texas at Madison Square Garden. Illinois also protected its homecourt, going 15-2 at State Farm Center and ending the season on a six-game home winning streak. It marked the Illini's best home winning percentage in 17 years.

2021-22
Underwood led Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship in year five, navigating a challenging schedule with a frequently depleted roster to post a 15-5 league record and earn the school's first regular season conference title in 17 years. Illinois went 23-10 overall as Underwood recorded his third-straight 20-plus win season. Illinois ended the year at No. 19 in the AP poll to register a third-straight Top 25 finish, the program's longest streak since 2000-06.

RICHMOND FAMILY ENDOWED MEN'S HEAD BASKETBALL COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD

Illinois was a No. 4 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just six programs to receive top-4 seeds over the two-year stretch after earning a No. 1 seed in 2021. Illinois was one of just 12 schools to advance to the Round of 32 in both the 2021 and 2022 NCAA Tournaments, which marked Illinois' first time advancing in consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 16 years.

Underwood coached junior Kofi Cockburn, the most dominant player in college basketball, to consensus first-team All-America honors in 2022. Cockburn was the only player in the country to average 20+ points and 10+ rebounds, becoming the first Illini in 50 years to do so. Cockburn joined Ayo Dosunmu as the only AP first-team All-Americans in school history, players mentored by Underwood in back-to-back seasons.

2020-21
Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, and earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois went 16-4 in conference play to mark its winningest Big Ten season ever. Illinois led the Big Ten in victories while playing the full conference schedule, but missed out on the regular season title due to an unequal number of games played creating a win percentage differential of .024. The Illini went on to win the Big Ten Tournament, earning the program's first conference tournament title since 2005.

In all, Illinois totaled 19 wins against conference foes in 2021, setting a school record and tying the second-most wins ever by a Big Ten school against league competition in a single season.

Illinois earned the fourth NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed in school history after winning 14 of 15 games over a two-month stretch leading into NCAA March Madness. The remarkable run included seven wins over ranked teams, with five coming against top-10 foes.

Illinois defeated No. 2 Michigan, 76-53, in Ann Arbor on March 2, recording its highest ranked road win in program history. The 23-point margin was the largest victory in the NCAA on the road over a top-2 team since 1995. Four days later, the Illini won at No. 7 Ohio State to notch its first back-to-back wins over top-10 teams since 2005.

Not finished with that accomplishment, Illinois again defeated back-to-back top-10 opponents the following week at the Big Ten Tournament, beating No. 5 Iowa in the semifinal and No. 9 Ohio State in the championship to win the title.

Illinois finished the season with a total of six victories over top-10 teams, breaking the previous school record of five set by the 1989 Flyin' Illini. Illinois led the country with 12 Quad 1 wins and a combined 17 wins in Quads 1 and 2. The Illini also won nine road games, leading all high-major conference teams.

Illinois made its first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in eight years, advancing to the Round of 32 to finish with a record of 24-7. Illinois ended the season at No. 4 in kenpom's team adjusted efficiency margin, the second-highest rating ever for the program. The Illini excelled on both sides of the ball, finishing the year as one of only three teams ranked in the top 10 nationally in both offensive (8th) and defensive (7th) efficiency.

Illinois had a pair of consensus All-Americans leading the way in 2021. Junior Ayo Dosunmu was a first-team All-America selection by every organization and finalist for every player of the year award. The USA Today National Player of the Year and Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, Dosunmu became the first NCAA player since 2010 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. Sophomore Kofi Cockburn was a second-team All-America pick by every outlet, totaling 16 double-doubles and standing as the only player in the country to average at least 15 points and nine rebounds on 60+ percent shooting.

2019-20
Underwood directed Illinois to the largest turnaround among schools from the six major conferences in 2020 (+10.0), which was seventh across all of Div. I for most improved teams. Illinois was ranked for eight weeks, checking in at No. 21 in the final Associated Poll to finish a season ranked in the Top 25 for the first time since 2006.

The Illini recorded 21 victories during the regular season and won 13 Big Ten games – its most league wins since 2005 – to finish just one game back of the conference title. The Illini's .650 winning percentage in league play was its best since 2006 and the program earned a bye to the Big Ten Tournament Quarterfinal round for the first time since 2011.

Underwood installed a new defense prior to year three and retooled the offense during the season, schematic changes that led to Illinois ranking in the top 40 nationally in both offensive and defensive efficiency (kenpom) for the first time in nine years. Those changes complemented the trademark of Underwood-led teams that excel in transition and on the glass. The Illini averaged more than 20 points per game in possessions under seven seconds and ranked 11th in the nation in both offensive rebound rate (35.6) and rebound margin (+7.5).

Illinois notched six Quad 1 wins on the season and was one of only two teams in the country to earn four road wins over teams in the top 35 of the NET. The Illini's five Big Ten road victories were its most in 10 years, highlighted by its first win at Purdue since the 2009 season and its first wins at Wisconsin and at Michigan since 2010.

The UI's top two performers were once again underclassmen. Sophomore Ayo Dosunmu led the team in scoring (16.6 ppg) and assists (3.3 apg), becoming the first Illini player in 10 years to earn first-team All-Big Ten accolades. Kofi Cockburn was the team's second-leading scorer (13.3 ppg) and leading rebounder (8.8 rpg) en route to being named 2020 Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

2018-19
Illinois was one of the most inexperienced teams in the country in 2019, with Underwood meshing seven newcomers into his 11-player rotation during his second season. Despite that youth, and facing the No. 3-ranked regular season schedule by kenpom, the Illini doubled their win total against conference foes, winning eight games against Big Ten competitors.

The Illini recorded nine wins against teams rated in the top-80 (kenpom), with four victories coming against eventual NCAA Tournament teams. The improvement was highlighted by marquee wins over two top-15 ranked opponents. Illinois defeated No. 13 Maryland at Madison Square Garden and knocked off No. 9-ranked and eventual Big Ten champion and Final Four participant Michigan State at home, leading to a court rush celebration by Orange Krush students at the buzzer.

Illinois had 58 percent of its scoring come from newcomers, which was the most of any team in the Big Ten. For the first time in school history, a true-freshman led Illinois in scoring on the season as Ayo Dosunmu averaged 13.8 points. And in conference play, Illinois had true-freshmen as its top two leading scorers for the first time ever in Dosunmu (14.8 ppg) and Giorgi Bezhanishvili (13.5 ppg).

2017-18
Year one saw Underwood lay the foundation for the Illini program. Playing at the second-fastest tempo in the Big Ten, Illinois topped 80 points in 12 games and averaged 75.8 points on the season. That marked the UI's highest scoring average in 13 years, since the 2005 national runner-up season. The offense was aggressive in all phases, recording the team's best offensive rebounding rate (.340) and highest free throw rate (.331) since 2008 and making the most free throws (478) since 2002.

RICHMOND FAMILY ENDOWED MEN'S HEAD BASKETBALL COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD

Defensively, Illinois ranked fourth nationally in turnover rate, forcing turnovers on 23.2 percent of opponent possessions. The UI defense created its most turnovers (17.5 avg.) since 2000 while collecting its most steals (6.3 spg) since 1999.

ATTENDANCE
Fans have come out to State Farm Center in big numbers to watch Underwood's teams since his hiring. Illinois' improvement in average home attendance from 2017 to 2018 ranked 13th nationally. The average increase of 1,231 fans, meanwhile, marked the largest jump for the program in nearly 40 years (1979). Illinois' attendance average increased by an additional 321 fans in 2019, and by 106 more fans in 2020 with Illinois playing in front of sellout crowds in five of its final six home games during his third season.

Following a season without fans under COVID-19 restrictions, Illini Nation poured back into State Farm Center in 2022. Student season tickets sold out in less than three hours, and the Illini played in front of eight sellout crowds on the season.

On the heels of the 2022 Big Ten title, State Farm Center was rocking again during the 2022-23 season. The allotment of 3,000 student tickets sold out in just 36 minutes this time around. Illinois played in front of 12 sellout crowds – the most since 2008 – including all 10 conference home games. Illinois' home attendance average of 15,091 was its highest in nine years, topping 15,000 for the first time since the renovation of State Farm Center.

Illinois set a revenue record for the third consecutive year in 2023-24, exceeding $7.1 million in ticket sales. The Illini played in front of 11 sellout crowds, and the home attendance average of 14,990 ranked 12th nationally.

Revenue records were shattered for a fourth straight year in 2024-25, with ticket sales reaching an all-time high of $7.8 million. Illinois played in front of 12 sellouts while its home attendance average of 15,091 ranked 11th nationally.

Illinois has played in front of 43 sellouts at State Farm Center since the return of fans following the pandemic, ranking in the top 13 nationally in attendance all four years.

OKLAHOMA STATE
Underwood came to Illinois from Oklahoma State, where he led OSU to a 20-win season and 2017 NCAA Tournament appearance. The Cowboys had one of the most exciting and prolific offenses in the country, ranking eighth in the NCAA in scoring (85.7 ppg) and leading the nation in adjusted offensive efficiency. The Cowboys ranked eighth nationally in 3-point field goal percentage (.402) and fourth in the country in offensive rebounding percentage (.383).

Oklahoma State finished fifth in the Big 12 with a 9-9 conference record in a season where the Big 12 was rated as the top conference in the nation. That was a dramatic improvement for the Cowboys, who went 3-15 in league play the year prior. Oklahoma State came on strong during the second half of the season, winning 10 of 11 games from Jan. 21-Feb. 25, 2017, which included a pair of five-game winning streaks.

Following that successful turnaround at OSU, he accepted the Illinois job owning a total of 109 wins, third-most ever by a NCAA Div. I head coach through four seasons.

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN
Underwood arrived in Stillwater following a dominant run at Stephen F. Austin where he led the Lumberjacks to Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in each of his three seasons. Underwood compiled an 89-14 record at SFA, tied with Brad Stevens (Butler, 2008-10) for the most wins ever by a head coach in his first three seasons at an NCAA school.

He led SFA to a 28-6 overall record and NCAA Round of 32 appearance in 2016. The Lumberjacks rolled past No. 3 West Virginia in the first round, 70-56, before narrowly missing a trip to the Sweet 16 with a 76-75 defeat to No. 6 Notre Dame in the second round.

That Stephen F. Austin squad was efficient on both sides of the ball, ranking 57th nationally on offense and 38th on defense. The Lumberjacks averaged 80.2 points accompanied by high-pressure defense that forced the highest turnover rate in the country (.259).

Underwood's second SFA team went 29-5 in 2015, also advancing to the NCAA Tournament. The Lumberjacks ranked seventh in the nation in field goal percentage (.487) and led the NCAA in assists (18.7 apg).

His debut season in Nacogdoches in 2014 included a 29-game winning streak and culminated in a 32-3 record and NCAA Round of 32 appearance after a victory over No. 5 seed VCU in the opening round. Underwood earned the Joe B. Hall award, given to the nation's top first-year coach.

PRIOR TO DIV. I HEAD COACH
Prior to taking over at Stephen F. Austin, Underwood spent the 2013 season as associate head coach at South Carolina under former head coach Frank Martin. He went to Columbia with Martin after serving on his bench for five seasons as an assistant at Kansas State, with his final season elevated to associate head coach. Underwood's first year at K-State was in the role of director of operations for then-head coach Bob Huggins.

Underwood had two head coaching stints in the junior college ranks, compiling a 70-24 record in three seasons at Daytona Beach (2004-06) and a 57-63 mark in four years at Dodge City (1990-93). In between those opportunities, Underwood was entrenched in the state of Illinois for 10 seasons, as an assistant coach for Jim Kerwin at Western Illinois from 1994-2003.

Underwood began his college career at Hardin-Simmons, where he later worked as a graduate assistant. Hardin-Simmons was the first college job for Lou Henson, the Fighting Illini's all-time winningest coach whose name permanently adorns the court at State Farm Center.

PERSONAL
Underwood is a December 1986 graduate of Kansas State. He played in Manhattan for the legendary Jack Hartman, K-State's all-time winningest coach. Former Illinois head coach Lon Kruger also played and coached for Hartman at Kansas State.

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler, who played four seasons for the Illini while earning three degrees, is an assistant coach and offensive coordinator on the Illinois staff. Katie also is a U of I graduate, while Ashley graduated from Miami-Ohio.

ORLANDO ANTIGUA
ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

A 22-year veteran of the coaching profession – widely regarded as the nation's preeminent recruiter and one of the top frontcourt player development mentors in the country – Orlando Antigua has reunited with head coach Brad Underwood and the Illinois program as Associate Head Coach.

Antigua is in year two of his second stint at Illinois. Last year, Antigua landed five-star recruit Will Riley, who would go on to earn Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year accolades before becoming a first round pick in the 2025 NBA Draft. Antigua also helped recruit and coach Tomislav Ivisic, who earned All-Big Ten accoaldes in his first season as the Illini's starting center.

Antigua's return to Champaign followed three successful seasons at Kentucky, which marked his second stop in Lexington. Kentucky compiled a 71-30 record from 2021-24, recording at least 22 wins in each of the three years and making three NCAA Tournament appearances.

Antigua managed the development of Oscar Tshiebwe, the unanimous National Player of the Year in 2022. Tshiebwe led the NCAA in rebounding and became the first Div. I player to average at least 15 points and 15 rebounds in 42 years. Antigua also helped the Wildcats land three-straight top-5 recruiting classes, including the No. 1 class in the country in 2023.

Prior to Antigua's second run in Lexington, he spent four years at Illinois from 2017-21. Antigua was Underwood's first hire in Champaign during the spring of 2017, and he played an instrumental role in the turnaround of Illinois Basketball into a national contender.

Antigua's final two seasons in Champaign rank among the best in school history. Illinois won 21 games during the regular season, went 13-7 in the Big Ten, and finished ranked No. 21 in the AP poll in a 2020 season that had no postseason due to COVID-19. The Illini then went 24-7 in 2021, including a 16-4 mark in conference play to set the school record for most wins in Big Ten play. Illinois went on to the win the Big Ten Tournament and earned an NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed. The 2021 Illini set a school mark by defeating six top-10 teams and ended the year at No. 2 in the final AP poll and No. 4 in kenpom, the second-highest rating in program history.

Antigua helped the Illini land several top-100 recruits and highly ranked recruiting classes and directed the development of three frontcourt players who earned All-Big Ten honors, including one who shined on the national stage.

Kofi Cockburn dominated in the post as a sophomore during the 2021 season, earning NCAA Consensus Second-Team All-America accolades and First-Team All-Big Ten. Cockburn was the only player in the country to average 15+ points and 9+ rebounds while shooting at least 60% from the field. He led the nation with 78 dunks, was third nationally with 16 double-doubles, and ranked fourth in the NCAA in field goal percentage (.654).

The 2020 season saw Cockburn emerge as the Big Ten's top newcomer. He earned seven league freshman of the week accolades en route to being named Big Ten Freshman of the Year. Cockburn shattered the Illini freshman double-doubles record with 12 while averaging 13.3 points, 8.8 rebounds and 1.4 blocks on the season.

In 2019, Giorgi Bezhanishvili arrived as an under-the-radar recruit but went on to start every game in the post, leading the team in rebounding and ranking among NCAA leaders in field goal percentage while breaking the Illini school single-game scoring record by a freshman (35 points).

Antigua arrived at Illinois following two and a half seasons as head coach at South Florida. He also served as head coach of the Dominican Republic men's national team from 2013-15. During that stint in 2014, the Dominican Republic advanced to the bracket round of the FIBA World Cup for the first time in the country's history.

Antigua earned the head position at South Florida after serving as an assistant for John Calipari for six seasons. As Council chair, Whitman also has been a voting member of the NCAA Division I Board of Directors, comprised primarily of presidents and chancellors from Division I institutions, and an ex officio member of the NCAA Board of Governors, the highest governing body of the NCAA.

From 2021-23 Whitman co-chaired the Big Ten's Administrators' Council and served on the Conference's Joint Group Executive Committee. In addition, he represented the Big Ten on the Rose Bowl Management Committee through 2023.

Illinois is coming off the most successful season of Whitman's tenure in in 2024-25, garnering a No. 31 final ranking in the Learfield Directors' Cup, the program's highest finish in the last 10 years. Fifteen Illini teams combined to earn 731.5 points, eclipsing the previous high under Whitman by nearly 132 points, and marking the highest point total for the department since the 2011-12 season.

Last year, for the first time in nearly 25 years – and only the second time in school history – the Illini football, men's basketball, and women's basketball programs all were ranked in the Top 25 at the same time. In addition, Illinois was one of only five schools in the country to win a postseason bowl game and win games in both the men's and women's NCAA Basketball Tournaments. Of those five schools, Whitman is the only current athletic director to have hired all three of the involved head coaches.

Also in 2024-25, women's track and field recorded a pair of top-10 national finishes, volleyball returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2021, men's golf won its seventh NCAA Regional championship, wrestling placed 10th nationally, and men's gymnastics finished sixth. In all, 16 Illini programs participated in postseason competition. Individually, wrestler Lucas Byrd claimed the national championship at 133 lbs.

Those many accomplishments followed a strong 2023-24 campaign that saw the Fighting Illini win a total of four Big Ten championships in baseball (regular season), men's basketball (tournament), women's indoor track & field, and men's gymnastics (regular season), the most for Illinois Athletics since 2015. Additionally, the men's golf program won the NCAA Regional title en route to yet another top-5 NCAA finish, women's basketball claimed the crown in the inaugural Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament (WBIT), and two Illini student-athletes brought home individual NCAA championships.

Nowhere has Whitman's influence been felt more than on the gridiron. An Illini letterman himself, Whitman has helped engineer the football team's return to national prominence, spearheaded by his hiring of three-time Big Ten champion head coach Bret Bielema in December of 2020 that has led to 23 wins and two New Year's bowl games in the last three seasons.

In 2024-25, Bielema's fourth year at the helm, Illinois tied its single-season wins record, becoming just the fifth team in the 134-year history of the program to win 10 games. The season culminated with a victory in the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl in Orlando, the Illini's first win in a New Year's bowl game since 1989. Illinois ended the year ranked No. 16 in the final Associated Press poll, its highest finish since 2001, to accompany an appearance in the final College Football Playoff ranking for the first time in school history.

The magical season will be remembered beyond the games, as the campus and community joined together for a season-long celebration of the 100th anniversary of historic Memorial Stadium. The tribute culminated with a stadium rededication ceremony and subsequent victory over Michigan in front of a sold-out crowd, with the Illini receiving national acclaim for the throwback helmets and jerseys that re-created the look of the famed Red Grange in 1924.

The turnaround on the field has been accompanied by a rapid rise in fan enthusiasm. Illinois features the highest three-season attendance growth in all of college football, improving by more than 19,000 in that span and reaching an average of 54,570 in 2024, its highest mark in 15 years. Highlighting those numbers were sellout crowds to watch wins over No. 19 Kansas and the signature 100th-anniversary triumph over No. 24 Michigan.

Similar to his imprint on the gridiron, Whitman also prompted a national resurgence in men's basketball that began with his 2017 hiring of head coach Brad Underwood, widely considered one of college basketball's best hires over the last decade. During the last six seasons, Underwood's Illini have posted the best record in Big Ten play while winning conference titles in three of the last five years. At the same time, State Farm Center has become one of the most feared home courts in college basketball, with average attendance in the top 12 nationally and 43 sellouts over the last four seasons. The men's basketball program has set Illinois revenue records in four consecutive seasons while becoming one of the Big Ten's most profitable programs.

Men's Basketball won 22 games in 2024-25, appearing in the NCAA Tournament for the fifth consecutive year, advancing to the Second Round, and ending the year ranked 17th in kenpom. Illinois recorded its sixth-straight 20-win regular season, standing as one of just four programs nationally to carry such a streak.

That followed a banner year for the program in 2023-24, when it advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the first time since 2005. The team captured its second Big Ten Tournament title in four years and totaled 29 victories to mark the third-winningest season in school history. Illinois ended the year at No. 6 in the AP poll, its second top-10 final ranking of the Underwood era.

Staying on the hardwood, Whitman's hiring of Shauna Green in women's basketball has ignited another turnaround in Fighting Illini Athletics. In 2022-23, Green's first year at the helm, she led the team to a historic 15-win improvement, the best year-over-year change ever at Illinois and the third-largest in Big Ten history. Illinois won 22 games, the third-most victories in program history, and made the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2003.

Green then led Illinois to its first postseason title in school history during her second season, 2023-24, as Illinois roared to the title of the NCAA's first-ever WBIT. Last season, Women's Basketball tied its school record with 21 regular-season wins and finished with 22 victories, tied for the third-winningest season in school history. Illinois earned its second NCAA Tournament appearance in three years under Green and posted its first Tournament win in the last 25 years, advancing to the NCAA Second Round.

In total during Whitman's tenure, Illinois teams have made 110 NCAA postseason appearances, highlighted by 31 teams finishing in the top 16 nationally and seven finishing in the nation's top four. In addition, nine Illinois student-athletes have captured 11 individual national championships (wrestler Isaiah Martinez, 2016; men's gymnast Brandon Ngai, 2016; men's gymnast Alex Diab, 2018 and 2019; men's gymnast Ian Skirkey, 2021; Skirkey, fellow men's gymnast Ashton Anaya, and women's track and field athlete Olivia Howell, 2023; men's gymnast Tate Costa and women's track and field athlete Rose Yeboah, 2024; and wrestler Lucas Byrd, 2025).

Illinois has captured a total of 16 Big Ten titles under Whitman: men's golf (2016-19, 21-23), women's golf (2023), men's basketball (2022 regular season, 2021 & 2024 tournaments), men's tennis (2021 tournament), men's gymnastics (2024 regular season, 2018 tournament), baseball (2024 regular season), and women's track and field (2024 indoor).

building is the $79.2 million, 110,000-square-foot Henry Dale and Betty Smith Football Center, which was formally dedicated in October 2019. A multi-year renovation and expansion of the Ubben Basketball Complex was a $40 million project that finished in the fall of 2022 and was officially dedicated in February of 2023. Other completed projects include the $21 million Demirjian Park, home for the Illinois soccer and track and field programs that opened in the spring of 2021, and the $8 million Susan and Clint Atkins Baseball Training Center and $6 million Rex and Alice A. Martin Softball Training Center, both dedicated in October 2022.

To assist Illinois' nationally ranked men's and women's golf programs, Whitman orchestrated the acquisition of the former Stone Creek Golf Club as part of a $15 million, multi-faceted gift of real estate to the University from long-time friends of Illinois Athletics, the Atkins family. The course, now rebranded the Atkins Golf Club at the University of Illinois, underwent extensive renovations using funds from a $5 million anonymous gift to provide Illinois Golf with a championship-caliber home. Atkins Golf Club served as a host site for the 2025 NCAA Men's Golf Regional Championships, where Illinois captured its seventh regional crown.

To support this facility plan and various other strategic initiatives, Whitman has teamed with DIA's Office of Athletic Development to achieve unprecedented success on the fundraising trail. Whitman's arrival synchronized with the public launch and execution of the campus-wide With Illinois fundraising campaign. As part of the With Illinois campaign, DIA secured more than $321 million in fundraising production, easily surpassing its fundraising goal of $300 million. The campaign featured several of the largest single gifts in program history, including a $20 million donation from the H.D. Smith Foundation, led by brothers Dale and Chris Smith, to name Smith Football Center.

Under Whitman's leadership, Illinois is amid eight consecutive fiscal years of recording more than $30 million in new gift commitments (FY18 through FY25), with three consecutive years (FY18 through FY20) exceeding $40 million. In FY25, Illinois secured more than $150 million in new gifts, shattering the program's record. As part of that record-breaking number in FY25, I FUND giving totaled a record $14.1 million, an 85% increase from the previous year.

In 2016, Whitman announced the creation of the University's Athletics Hall of Fame, which will induct its ninth class in the fall of 2025. In the winter of 2022, following an extensive community effort, the Illinois High School Association returned its Boys State Basketball Championship series back to State Farm Center after an absence of more than 25 years.

In March 2025, Whitman testified in a hearing before the U.S. House of Representatives Subcommittee on Commerce, Manufacturing and Trade on the future of college athletics. Whitman has also been a regular presence in Springfield, testifying in committee and working with state lawmakers on a variety of issues impacting college athletics, including name-image-likeness and sports gambling. In the summer of 2020, Whitman joined Governor J.B. Pritzker in State Farm Center while the Governor signed into law the Student-Athlete Endorsement Rights Act, the state's inaugural NIL bill.

Whitman, a former Academic All-American at Illinois, emphasizes strong performance by Fighting Illini student-athletes in the classroom as well. In each year of his tenure, student-athletes have posted a combined GPA of above 3.12. Under Whitman's leadership, the student-athlete population as a whole and individual teams have set school records for GPA, APR scores and GSR scores. Illini student-athletes enter the 2025-26 academic year with a school-record streak of 30-consecutive semesters with a combined GPA above 3.0.

At the time of his hiring in early 2016, Whitman, then at age 37, was the youngest athletics director in the Autonomy 5. Prior to returning to Illinois, Whitman, now 47 years old, spent nearly six years as an athletics director at two universities. He came to Champaign-Urbana following almost two years as director of athletics at Washington University in St. Louis, a nationally recognized NCAA Division III program with 19 varsity sports and approximately 500 student-athletes. Before joining Washington University, Whitman served four years as the director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse, another of the nation's leading Division III programs. Combined at those two institutions, Whitman's teams earned four national titles, 24 NCAA top-five team finishes and 34 conference championships.

Whitman has two Illinois degrees. He graduated with Bronze Tablet honors in 2001 while earning a bachelor's degree in finance. In 2008, he graduated summa cum laude from the Illinois College of Law before serving as a judicial law clerk for Judge Michael Kanne on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. From 2005 to 2008, he worked for DIA and former Illini athletics director Ron Guenther in various administrative capacities.

On the gridiron for the Fighting Illini, Whitman played in 45 games from 1997-2000, catching 52 career passes and seven touchdowns. He was a two-time First Team Academic All-American and earned Honorable Mention All-Big Ten honors his senior season. He then spent parts of four seasons as a player in the National Football League, including stints with the San Diego Chargers, Miami Dolphins, Seattle Seahawks, and Buffalo Bills. Whitman, a native of West Lafayette, Ind., is a member of the Indiana Football Hall of Fame.

Prior to embarking on his career in athletics administration, Whitman practiced law in Washington, D.C., with Covington & Burling LLP, a firm with a preeminent sports practice that represents, among other clients, the National Football League. Whitman remains a licensed attorney and is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the FBS Athletics Directors Association. He also served on the national board of directors for the Sports Lawyers Association from 2019-23.

Whitman's leadership has earned national attention, highlighted in early 2018 when Sports Business Journal named him to its prestigious Forty Under 40 list. In July 2017, Whitman was selected Central Illinois Business Magazine's Forty Under 40 Man of the Year.

Whitman is married to Hope Whitman. They have two children: a daughter Tate, who is nine, and a seven-year-old son, Will. The Whitmans have become engaged in several Champaign-Urbana community organizations, including United Way, Champaign County Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for Children, Courage Connection, Coaches vs. Cancer, and the Tom Jones Challenger League. Whitman has been recognized as a Paul Harris Fellow by the Rotary Club of Champaign, which also honored he and Hope with its Service Above Self Award in 2025. Whitman was selected as the 2023 Distinguished Citizen by the Prairieland Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He and Hope are members of the I FUND's Loyalty Circle and made a significant gift to the Smith Football Center to honor football alumni inside the facility.

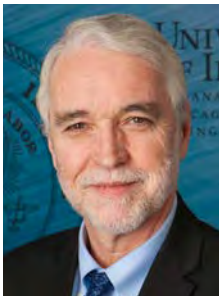
UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

TIMOTHY L. KILLEEN
PRESIDENT



Timothy L. Killeen is the 20th president of the University of Illinois System, which includes universities in Urbana-Champaign, Chicago and Springfield. He took office in May 2015 and received a new contract in 2024 that extends his term through June 2027.

Since taking office, Killeen has helped lead a surge of growth across the state's flagship university system. Enrollment is at record highs, including increases among in-state and underrepresented students. Student costs have been held in check by affordability initiatives that include a tuition freeze for new Illinois students six of the last eight years and substantial increases in institutional financial aid. Retention and graduation rates top national norms, while student debt rates are lower than U.S. averages. The system plans to add 300 faculty members in three years on top of those hired to fill vacancies. A capital program will build or upgrade nearly 350 facilities over the next decade to ensure classroom and research space matches the system's academic excellence, and the system's largest fundraising campaign ever exceeded its $3.1 billion goal.

A leading researcher in geophysics and space sciences, Killeen champions efforts to expand research discovery that drives progress and job creation. That includes helping lead the creation of two pioneering initiatives to drive innovation and workforce development – Discovery Partners Institute, a world-class research, technology talent development and business-building center in downtown Chicago, and Illinois Innovation Network, a system of satellite hubs that combine research, public-private partnerships, entrepreneurship and workforce training to spur inclusive economic development across the state.

In alignment with its mission, The University of Illinois System contributes $19 billion annually to the state's economy through research, hospital and entrepreneurial activities, along with the universities' students, visitors and alumni. A 2022 study showed the system's impact on the state grew by 8.6 percent – roughly $1.5 billion – since 2018.

In addition, Killeen reaffirmed the system's commitment to the arts and humanities, launching a program that pumped nearly $3.5 million into faculty initiatives that underscore their importance to a well-rounded education.

The ongoing growth is rooted in the Strategic Framework that Killeen helped develop early in his presidency to guide the U of I System for the next decade. The roadmap set high-aspiration goals to make the U of I System a model for higher education in the 21st century, and build on its more than 150-year legacy of service to students, innovation and the public good.

In 2021, Killeen launched the annual U of I System leadership state tour with the goal of connecting with businesses, communities, schools, lawmakers, alumni and more to strengthen existing partnerships and forge new ones that improve the lives of Illinois residents.

When he joined the U of I System, Killeen brought more than three decades of experience as an educator, researcher and administrator in public higher education and in leadership positions with national scientific research agencies.

Earlier, he served as vice chancellor for research and president of the Research Foundation at the State University of New York, one of the nation's largest higher education systems. He also served as assistant director for geosciences at the National Science Foundation (NSF), as the Lyall Research Professor at the University of Colorado, and as director and senior scientist for the National Center for Atmospheric Research. Additionally, Killeen spent more than 20 years as a faculty member and researcher at the University of Michigan, where he also served as associate vice president for research.

He was elected to the National Academy of Engineering in 2007, and is a member and past president of the American Geophysical Union and a fellow of the American Meteorological Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Killeen has authored more than 150 publications in peer-reviewed journals, along with more than 300 other publications and papers.

A native of Wales and a U.S. citizen, Killeen received his bachelor's degree in physics and astronomy at University College London, where he also earned his doctoral degree in atomic and molecular physics and was later awarded an honorary doctorate degree for his significant contribution to research.

Killeen's wife, Roberta M. Johnson, holds B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees in geophysics and space physics from the University of California, Los Angeles. She has published more than 60 peer-reviewed papers, review articles, abstracts and non-referred reports and articles in the area of upper mesosphere and lower thermosphere research, as well as on educational programs.

The Killeens have three children and two grandsons.

CHARLES L. ISBELL JR.
CHANCELLOR

Charles L. Isbell, Jr. became the 11th Chancellor of the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign in July 2025. As Chancellor, he leads the state's flagship land-grant university in its missions of academic excellence, innovation, and public engagement.

Chancellor Isbell is a computationalist, researcher, educator, and advocate for the idea that higher education creates opportunity, drives progress, and broadens our understanding of the world. His research has focused on artificial intelligence and machine learning, with an emphasis on how those systems interact with humans in responsible and inclusive ways. Isbell's home as an Illinois faculty member is the Siebel School of Computing and Data Science in The Grainger College of Engineering.

Through multiple initiatives aimed at increasing participation in higher education, Isbell has become a respected leader in higher education reform. Although he is a computationalist by training, he values the critical thinking demanded of every discipline and considers it central to the purpose of education. He is an award-winning teacher who has been recognized internationally for his work in providing high-quality, accessible education at scale.

He is a fellow of the Association for the Advancement of Artificial Intelligence and the Association for Computing Machinery as well as an elected member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He has served on a number of advisory boards for the National Science Foundation (NSF), Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA), and the National Academies. He was the founding Executive Director for the Constellations Center for Education in Computing at Georgia Tech.

Isbell received his bachelor of science degree from Georgia Tech and continued his education at the Artificial Intelligence Laboratory at MIT. After earning his Ph.D. there in 1998, he joined AT&T Labs/Research. He returned to Georgia Tech in 2002 to join the faculty of the College of Computing, becoming dean in 2019. In 2023, he became Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Though born in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Isbell's earliest memory is arriving in Atlanta on a moving truck, so he thinks of himself as being from Atlanta. He and wife, Sheila D. Isbell, are parents to daughter Joni and son Cody.

RICHMOND ENDOWMENT

RICHMONDS ENDOW BASKETBALL COACH'S POSITION

The legacy of Jack Richmond abounds at his alma mater, the University of Illinois.

The Champaign resident, retired businessman, and U of I graduate and benefactor died April 17, 2011. But his love of his university lives. One of the more recent gifts from the lifelong Fighting Illini fan and his wife, Marge, endowed the salary of the men's basketball head coach position. This $2 million gift significantly increased their previous seven-figure commitment to the Division of Intercollegiate Athletics.

Their generosity extends across the U-C campus. In 2004, Mr. Richmond made a six-figure gift creating the Jack C. Richmond Scholarships for members of the men's varsity gymnastics team. In 2003, the Richmonds made a $1.5 million gift resulted in Richmond Family Gallery, the first floor reception area in the Alice Campbell Alumni Center. The Richmonds also provided a $2 million gift to the College of Communications in 1998 that created the Richmond Journalism Teaching Studio, a broadcast facility for journalism students in Campbell Hall for Public Telecommunication. The Richmond Studio and the Richmond Family Gallery honor Jack and Marge as well as the memory of Jack's parents, Arthur Dean and Mildred Hummel Richmond.

"The Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach" is another example of the generations-long benevolence of the Richmond family. Jack's ancestors helped settle Champaign County, and his parents contributed to the U of I for the construction of Memorial Stadium. Seven-year-old Jack was on hand for the dedication of Memorial Stadium on Oct. 18, 1924, a day forever highlighted by Red Grange's five touchdowns during an Illinois romp over top-ranked Michigan. Jack Richmond was hooked on Fighting Illini sports for the rest of his life.

But before he could attend the U of I, he learned a few lessons in life. The Richmonds were devastated by the Great Depression, losing their significant holdings of farmland and other assets. The dramatic change in lifestyle had a profound effect on young Jack.

It also made him further appreciate the University of Illinois.

His years at the U of I were greatly satisfying. He was a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity and was active in sports. As a freshman gymnast who earned his numerals with the U of I team, Jack broke his sternum following a dismount from the flying rings. No longer able to compete as a gymnast, he focused his attention on weight training. At that point, weights weren't popular and were nonexistent at the U of I.

Still, he convinced Seward Staley, director of the U of I School of Physical Education, to purchase a set of Olympic weights. A small but dedicated weight lifting team was formed, and the sport spread to first to the intramural level and then was adopted by the physical education department as a P.E. course.

Today, the benefits of weight training are widely recognized and top-notch equipment is available across campus.

Those muscles paid off for Jack, who was a railroad worker, wrecking crew member, meat truck driver, corn detassler, lifeguard, bouncer and even a model for the U of I art school to pay for his education. He graduated in 1943 with a bachelor's degree in agriculture.

He followed up his four years of ROTC at the U of I with a tour in the Army. Then he put his degree to work when he joined the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service as a county farm planner, opening district offices in Macon County and Clark County.

Later, Mr. Richmond was recruited by a former member of the U of I gymnastics team as a salesman for Marchant Calculators. His capacity to sell was exceptional, and he soon had clients from area grain elevator operators to the U of I. He remained with Marchant, which was acquired by Smith Corona and became known as SCM Corp., until 1972. Then he was ready to embark on a new course — the stock market.

He had dabbled in the market since 1955, but by the early 1970s he had the time and resources to become more active in the stock market. He enjoyed success in this realm as well, and was more than willing to share. A donor since 1965, his generosity to the U of I increased significantly over the years. Jack and his mother became members of the Presidents Council in 1976 and Marge became a member in 1990.

Always interested in athletics at the U of I, Jack and Mildred Richmond had made a $1 million commitment to the Athletic Department in 1981. He became an honorary member of the I Man's Association and had been a member and former president of the Illini Quarterback Club since 1955. He also joined the Rebounders Club shortly after former head coach Lou Henson founded it and had been a life member of the Fighting Illini Scholarship Fund.

The Richmond name will be forever associated with athletics at the U of I through the endowment of the men's basketball head coach position. For lifelong Fighting Illini fan Jack Richmond, that always seemed most appropriate.

Game 1 Recap – Illinois 112, Eastern Illinois 67

Five Fighting Illini scorers finished in double figures, including a team-leading 31-point performance from freshman Will Riley, as Illinois cruised to a season-opening 112-67 win over Eastern Illinois at State Farm Center.

Riley set the Illinois record for points in a freshman debut, going 10-for-13 from the field, including 5-for-6 from 3-point range. He was joined in double-figures scoring by sophomore Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn who poured in a career-high 21 points with a career-best four three-pointers and a 7-for-8 mark from the free-throw line.

Behind Riley and Gibbs-Lawhorn, Tomislav Ivisic registered a double-double of 14 points and 14 rebounds in his collegiate debut, Ben Humrichous finished with 14 points in his debut with the Orange and Blue, and Kasparas Jakucionis totaled 11 points and a team-high seven assists.

Jakucionis seven assists also marked an Illinois record for a freshman debut, and Morez Johnson Jr. tied the Illini's freshman record for blocks in a single game with six.

Illinois' 112 points were the program's most in a game since Nov. 25, 2020 vs. Nort Carolina A&T (122), and the 45-point victory marked the ninth time in the Underwood era that the team has eclipsed the century mark.

The Illini enjoyed a 58-28 rebounding advantage that led to a 26-4 edge in second-chance points. The Orange and Blue also knocked down 16 3-pointers, and went 34-for-46 from the free-throw line, the team's most makes at the charity stripe since also recording 34 free-throws in 2017 vs. Southern.

Led by Riley and Gibbs-Lawhorn, the Illini bench outscored the EIU reserves, 63-19.

The Illini improved to 8-0 in openers in under Underwood, and have won 28 straight games when opening the season at State Farm Center dating back to 1993.

Illinois improved to 3-0 with a gritty 66-54 home win over Oakland.

Kylan Boswell scored a season-high eight points, including two 3-pointers, and Will Riley and Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn totaled eight points and seven points, respectively, off the bench.

The Illini built a 22-9 lead midway through the first half. A 10-0 Oakland run cut the Orange and Blue advantage to just 22-19 at the 7:47 mark of the first, and the Illini went into the locker room leading 36-29.

Oakland cut its deficit to just two points early in the second half, but the Illini's lead was not in singles digits for long. Game 14 Recap – #22 Illinois 81, Washington 77

No. 22 Illinois completed its West Coast road trip with a hard-fought 81-77 win over Washington at Alaska Airlines Arena on Sunday afternoon.

After the Huskies battled back to tie the game at 75 with under one minute left in th game, Kasparas Jakucionis made a driving layup with just over 30 seconds remaining to help the Fighting Illini improve to 3-1 in Big Ten action this season.

Jakucionis finished with a team-high 18 points, including four in the final minute. He shot 6-for-11 from the field and 4-for-4 from the free throw line, with six assists, five rebounds, and a steal.

Tre White tallied 11 of his 17 points in the first half. White also corralled seven rebounds and made a key steal late in the game. Kylan Boswell added 14 points, all in the second half with four total rebounds (three offensive) and one assist.

The Illini set the tone early, opening the game with a 10-2 run, and the Orange and Blue led by as many as 17 in the first half, before Washington began to chip away at the deficit led by DJ Davis.

Davis tallied 31 points in the contest, the most by an Illinois opponent this season, with 17 coming in the second frame. His triple at the 8:26 mark cut the Illini lead to single digits for the final time, and his layup with 61 seconds remaining tied the game, 75-75, for the first time since it was knotted at 2-2 in the opening minute.

But Jakucionis' driving layup with 32.7 seconds remaining sent the Illini right back in front. Tre White stripped the ball loose on a driving layup attempt, and after a battle for the loose ball, a tie-up saw the Illini take possession with under 15 seconds to go.

Jakucionis' two free throws with 12.6 seconds left pushed Illinois' edge up to 79-75, Though the Huskies made a layup with 6.7 seconds to go to cut that advantage in half. Boswell's two free throws re-established Illinois' four-point lead, 81-77, and sealed the Illini's second road win of the week.

Game 16 Recap – USC 82, #13 Illinois 72

No. 13 Illinois men's basketball dropped an 82-72 home game to Big Ten newcomer USC on Saturday, snapping the Fighting Illini's five-game win streak.

Four players scored in double-figures for the Illini (12-4, 4-2) who were playing without starting point guard Kasparas Jakucionis for the second straight game. Ben Humrichous led the way with 15 points including three of the team's seven three-pointers. USC was led by a game-high 31 points from Desmond Claude.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn and Tre White added 11 points each for the Illini and Kylan Boswell narrowly missed a double-double with 10 points and eight rebounds to go along with a game-high six assists and a career-high-tying five steals.

The Illini worked to battle back from a slow start throughout most of the first half. USC (10-6, 2-3) led 19-10 at the 11:21 mark of the opening stanza, with the Illini shooting 0-4 from 3-point range to open the game. Out of a timeout, Humrichous knocked down the team's first triple to jump start the Illini.

The Orange and Blue hit their stride late in the half, closing on a 10-2 run to take a 38-35 lead into the break. Another Humrichous three-pointer gave the Illini their first lead since 2-0 with 51 seconds to go. Gibbs-Lawhorn recorded a steal on the ensuing USC possession, then hit White for on the fast break for a buzzer-beating layup to end the half with the Illini leading.

Early in the second half, USC regained the lead, 53-47, on the heels of an early 14-4 run. The Illini responded with a 6-0 spurt of their own, capped by a Gibbs-Lawhorn 3-pointer to knot the game at 53 with 12:31 to play.

The Trojans surrounded Humrichous' third triple with a 6-0 run and a 7-0 stretch, pushing their lead to double digits, 72-62, with 4 minutes remaining. The Illini answered with four straight – a pair of White free-throws and a Humrichous jumper in the lane – but were unable to pull any closer than six points in the final 3 minutes.

Game 17 Recap – #19 Illinois 94, Indiana 69

No. 19 Illinois cruised to a dominant 94-69 road win over Indiana at Simon Skjodt Assembly Hall, leading by as many as 31 points en route to their largest road win against the Hoosiers in program history.

Despite missing the last two games, Kasparas Jakucionis did not miss a beat in his return, finishing with 21 points while making three 3-pointers and going 7-for-13 from the field. The Lithuania native also accumulated five assists and three rebounds.

Tomislav Ivisic posted his seventh double-double of the year with 17 points and 11 rebounds, and Kylan Boswell tallied a career-high and game-high 22 points, including 13 points in the second half.

Dra Gibbs-Lawhorn scored 12 off the bench and corralled two offensive rebounds. Ben Humrichous tacked on seven points and five rebounds, Tre White collected five points and six boards, and Morez Johnson Jr. logged five points and 10 rebounds.

Five lead changes in the first 3 minutes encapsulated the back-and-forth of the early few possessions, but the Orange and Blue soon settled in on both ends of the floor. Jakucionis accounted for eight of the Illini's first 10 points, and a 15-2 Illinois run gave the visitors a double-digit advantage less than 7 minutes into the contest.

Jakucionis reached double figures 2 minutes later and was just getting started. A 10-2 Illini run – which featured 3-pointers from Boswell, Ivisic, and Jakucionis – pushed the lead above 20 with 8:13 left in the first half, and the Illini built 60-32 edge by halftime.

The Hoosiers began the second half with a 10-0 run, and pulled within 16 points, 64-48, with 13:30 to play. But a 17-3 Illini run pushed the lead back to 30 points, 81-51, all but puttiing the game out of reach with more than 7 minutes remaining.

The Illini's lead eventually climbed as high as 31 late in the contest as the Orange and Blue picked up their third Big Ten road win of the campaign, and handed the Hoosiers the second-worst loss in the history of Assembly Hall.

Kasparas Jakucionis posted his third double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds, and added a game-high seven assists.

Jake Davis added 11 points off the bench while connecting on a season-high three 3-pointers, reaching double-digits scoring for the second time this season.

Illinois dominated on the glass, holding a 50-27 edge in total rebounds while collecting a season-most 21 offensive boards. Johnson had a game-high five offensive rebounds, while five Illini had multiple boards on the offensive end.

Both sides got off to a slow start offensively before the Illini pieced together a 15-0 run to take a 20-5 lead midway through the first half. After the Wildcats ended their scoreless drought with a 3-pointer, the Orange and Blue scored 12 of the game's next 5 to expand the lead to 32-11, and cruised to a 43-21 halftime lead.

Illinois led 50-25 after a 3-pointer on the break from Jakucionis at the 17:36 mark, and the Illini maintained a 20-point margin with less than 5 minutes to play. And despite a late offensive burst from Northwestern that cut the lead to single-digits, the Illini rolled to victory to secure a split of the regular-season series with the Wildcats.

Will Riley added 10 points, three rebounds, two assists, and a block off the bench, while Morez Johnson Jr. amassed eight points, six rebounds, and a steal.

Holding the Bruins without a field goal for over five minutes to start the game, the Illini eventually opened up a 10-2 lead. The Illini lead reached 15 in the first half on the heels of a 9-0 run that ended at the 5:20 mark. But pulled to within six points, 31-25 by closing the half on a 13-3 run over the final 5:03.

In the second haf, the Illini steadily built their lead back to double-digits and held a 16-point edge, 76-60, with just under 5 minutes to play. UCLA answered with a 13-0 run of their own 3:43 to pull within one possesion over the final minute of play.

The Illini closed the door however, capping a 90% night from the free-throw line by hitting three of four attempts in the final seven seconds, and grabbing a key offensive rebound off the miss, to close out the 83-78 win.

Game 31 Recap – Illinois 88, #18 Purdue 80

Kasparas Jakucionis' step-back triple with 39 seconds to play broke a 79-79 tie, as the Illini (20-11, 12-8 B1G) stormed back from a 10-point second-half deficit to defeat No. 18 Purdue (21-10, 13-7) on Senior Night at sold-out State Farm Center. The clutch triple was part of a 13-1 run over the final 2 minutes in Illinois' 88-80 victory to close out the regular season.

All five Illini starters posted double-figures scoring, led by 22 points from Will Riley and 20 from Tre White. Jakucionis' triple gave him 10 in the game, while Kylan Boswell added 15, Tomislav Ivisic scored 14, and Ben Humrichous chipped in with seven points, including the three-pointer that sparked the Illini's closing run.

Riley shot 7-for-14 from the field, including a pair of 3-pointers and a 6-for-6 showing from the free-throw line. White tied a career-high mark with three 3-pointers (3-5), and shot 7-for-9 overall, including a hot start that saw him open the game by scoring seven of the Illini's first nine points.

After a back-and-forth period that saw the Illini trail 42-40 at halftime, the Orange and Blue fell behind, 63-53, with 11:30 left to play following a 3-pointer from Purdue's Braden Smith.

Riley's jumper on the next Illinois possession sparked a key 17-1 stretch for the Illini. The run was capped by back-to-back 3-pointers from Humrichous and White, and gave the Illini a 70-66 edge with 6:44 to play. It was the Illini's first lead since 17-15 in the first half.

Purdue responded by scoring 13 of the game's next 18 points to stake to a 79-75 lead, but Trey Kaufman-Renn's bucket at the 2:18 mark – which gave him a game-high 29 – was the final field goal scored by the Boilermakers before the Illini's game-winning flurry.

Game 35 Recap – #18 Kentucky 84, Illinois 75
Sixth-seeded Illinois fell to third-seeded and 18th-ranked Kentucky, 84-75, in the second round of the NCAA Tournament on Sunday evening at Fiserv Forum.

The Illini closed the season with a 22-13 mark, including 12-8 in Big Ten play, and the program's fifth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance under head coach Brad Underwood.

Junior G Kylan Boswell led the way for the Fighting Illini, tying for game-high honors with 23 points while dishing out a team-leading six assists. Boswell's 23 points were a career-high in an NCAA Tournament game.

Sophomore C Tomislav Ivisic poured in 19 points, including five 3-pointers, and pulled down six rebounds for the Illini. Ivisic's five triples broke his own NCAA Tournament record for a 7-footer set in the team's Round 1 win vs. Xavier on Friday. His nine combined threes in the Illini's NCAA Tournament run are now the most in a career by a 7-footer in NCAA Tournament history.

Freshman G Kasparas Jakucionis finished with 13 points, tying Cory Bradford's Illinois freshman scoring record. He also added five rebounds.

Junior G Tre White tied graduate F Ben Hurichous and freshman F Morez Johnson Jr. as the Illini's leading rebounder with seven boards.

& UI elected not to participate in the 1943 NCAA Tournament after three starters were drafted and entered military service following the final regular-season game

 UI went 18-14 during the 2017 season under Groce, and 2-1 in the NIT under Walker (interim coach)*

% UI would have participated in the 2020 NCAA Tournament, but it was canceled the week prior due to COVID-19

 # UI led the Big Ten in wins in 2021 while playing the full conference schedule, but because of an unequal number of games played, finished as runner-up by winning percentage

YEAR-BY-YEAR SCHEDULE AND RESULTS

HEAD COACH ELWOOD BROWN
(1 YEAR, 6-8, .429)

Leo Hana was put in charge of building the basketball program at Illinois after a women's program had existed for years. A team, led by its playing captain Roy Riley, beat Champaign High School Jan. 6, two weeks before Hana was able to replace Riley with a "professional" coach. Elwood Brown became Illinois' first basketball coach Jan. 20, 1906, and proceeded to turn in a commendable coaching job, especially since the squad lost two of its mainstays during the season. "The results of the season were on the whole satisfactory. In the future, there will not be such a lack of material as hampered the coach (Brown) this season," wrote the 1907 Illio.

HEAD COACH F.L. PINCKNEY
(1 YEAR, 1-10, .091)

Pinckney took over the coaching reins for a year in 1907. There was promise for a good season after the solid start the program had made in 1906. More than 100 men tried out for the team. Pinckney found at least three freshmen he thought would help the team and placed them on the varsity squad. However, the Western Conference Committee declared the three ineligible, leaving Pinckney with a much depleted team and Illinois with its worst record ever. The decision to make the freshmen ineligible gave Pinckney the same problem Brown faced the year before - turning out a winning team with limited talent.

HEAD COACH FLETCHER LANE
(1 YEAR, 20-6, .769)

Fletcher Lane was Illinois' third coach, but lasted just one season. His 20-6 team of 1908 benefited from a long Southern trip in which the team beat several YMCA and club teams from Tennessee, Texas, Alabama, and Georgia. The club was billed as a closely-knit group, due in part to the long trip. The players, however, did not appear to appreciate Lane's coaching style. M.G. Dadant, the 1908 captain wrote, "Handicapped as they were by the lack of any competent coaching, the players went through the season in perfect harmony, each one relinquishing any personal feelings that the team might be better as a whole."

HEAD COACH H. V. JUUL
(2 YEARS, 12-10, .545)

H. V. Juul became the first Illinois basketball coach to stay for more than one year. He also became the first former Fighting Illini player to head the Illinois basketball program and was captain of the 1907 squad. After leading Illinois to a 12-10 record over two years, he departed to become a professional baseball player, enjoying stints with the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds. Juul was the son of a former Illinois Congressman and, prior to his death in 1928, was a committeeman in the 35th Ward in Chicago as well as campaign director for the Republican Party headquarters at the Morrisson Hotel in Chicago.

HEAD COACH T.E. THOMPSON
(2 YEARS, 14-14, .500)

T. E. Thompson also had a two-year career as head basketball coach at Illinois, compiling a 14-14 record. Thompson claimed, at the time, to be the only player in Western Conference history to have played five years of collegiate basketball. He was at Northwestern for one year before playing at Illinois for four additional seasons. In addition to his duties as basketball coach at Illinois in 1911-12, he also served as Athletic Director George Huff's only assistant in the athletic department, doubling as the school's general manager of athletics and as ticket manager. After leaving the university, he founded The Thomas Thompson Company in Highland Park, Ill., a manufacturer of enamel products.

HEAD COACH FRANK WINTERS
(2 YEARS, 25-12, .676)

While in his two-year stint as coach of the Illinois basketball team, Frank Winters was faced with having only a handful of veteran players available and was forced into installing an entirely new system of play. His 25-12 record in two years was a testament to the way Winters made negatives into positives. Upon arriving as head coach in the fall of 1920, he inherited a team whose best player, Chuck Carney, had just severely injured his knee in the last football game. Nonetheless, the team went on to an 11-7 record and improved to 14-5 in the 1922 campaign.

HEAD COACH J. CRAIG RUBY
(14 YEARS, 148-95, .609)

J. Craig Ruby was known as one of the great basketball tacticians of his time. He and legendary Kansas coach Phog Allen actively campaigned together for higher baskets to offset the advantage of tall centers. Ruby alone advocated the elimination of the dribble to do away with stalling, and wanted the hoop enlarged to 20 inches in diameter rather than the standard 18. Ruby's second season at Illinois produced a tie for the Big Ten Championship in 1924, but it was not until 1935 that he could lead his team to tie for top conference honors again.

HEAD COACH DOUG MILLS
(11 YEARS, 151-66, .696)

Doug Mills was not only an extremely successful basketball coach at Illinois, but one of the University's most prolific and long-standing administrators. He began his association with Fighting Illini athletics as a standout in both football and basketball in the late 1920s. Mills became the first Illinois head basketball coach to lead his squad to three Big Ten crowns. Also included in his 11-year coaching tenure was the formation of the legendary "Whiz Kids" team of 1942 and '43. That team won back-to-back Big Ten crowns. After retiring from the coaching ranks in 1947, Mills retained his position as athletic director until 1966.

HEAD COACH HARRY COMBES

Harry Combes only had to move across town after accepting the job as head coach at Illinois. Prior to joining the Illini, he had been head coach at Champaign High School where he posted an astounding 254-46 record, including winning the state title in 1946. Once at Illinois, he won three Big Ten titles in his first five seasons ('49, '51 and '52). It was also Combes who led the Fighting Illini to three third-place finishes in the NCAA Tournament in the four-year period from 1949-52. The squad won 79 of the 100 games during those four years. Illinois' 1952 Final Four appearance was the first officially recognized Final Four. Until Lou Henson broke the record in 1990, Combes' 316 wins were the most wins ever by an Illinois head basketball coach.

HEAD COACH HARV SCHMIDT

Harv Schmidt, a former all-time great player at Illinois, returned to his alma mater in 1968 after serving as an assistant at New Mexico for three years. Within three years of his arrival, he had brought Illinois back to among the elite programs in the Big Ten. The beginning of his tenure marked one of the high-water mark in fan enthusiasm. Illinois led the nation in attendance in 1970, averaging 16,128 per home contest, as students routinely camped out for tickets outside the newly opened, state-of-the-art Assembly Hall.

HEAD COACH GENE BARTOW
(1 YEAR, 8-18, .308)

Brought to Illinois to continue the magical rebuilding jobs he had undertaken at Valparaiso and Memphis State, Gene Bartow was counted on by Athletic Director Cecil Coleman to restore the successful level of play fans had become accustomed to in the past. However, Bartow's stay in Champaign was short-lived, lasting only one year and producing an 8-18 record. The lure away from Illinois was a strong one for Bartow; he was hired away by UCLA to replace legendary Bruin coach John Wooden.

HEAD COACH LOU HENSON

Lou Henson, the all-time winningest coach in Illinois basketball history, came to Champaign-Urbana after successful head coaching stints at Hardin-Simmons and New Mexico State Universities. He finished his Illinois career No. 12 on the NCAA all-time victory list with 663 wins. Illinois became a national power under Henson, being selected to the NCAA tournament 12 times. The highlight of the postseason competition came in 1989 when the spectacular Flying Illini team won 31 contests and advanced to the Final Four. Henson's Illini were also seeded among the top four in their regional for six consecutive years (1984-89) for the second-longest such streak (next to North Carolina) ever. Illinois finished in the upper division in the Big Ten nine consecutive seasons (1983-91), and had 11 straight years of producing a plus-.500 Big Ten record from 1981 to 1991, the fifth-longest streak of that kind in Big Ten history. Henson led the Illini to a 1984 Big Ten co-championship and No. 1 national ranking in 1989. He coached Illinois to nine straight 20-win seasons from 1983 to 1991 and finished his UI career as the third-winningest coach in Big Ten history with 214 victories.

HEAD COACH LON KRUGER

Lon Kruger was hired at Illinois on March 21, 1996, succeeding Lou Henson, who retired after 21 seasons. Kruger came to Champaign-Urbana after six seasons at Florida, where he led the Gators to their first Final Four in 1994. His previous head coaching experience included a four-year stint at his alma mater, Kansas State (1987-90), and at Pan American (1983-86). In 1998, Kruger led the Illini to a share of the Big Ten championship, the school's first since 1984. He guided Illinois to NCAA Tournament appearances in 1997, 1998 and 2000. Kruger left Illinois to become the head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks.

HEAD COACH BILL SELF

Bill Self was hired at Illinois on June 9, 2000, succeeding Lon Kruger, who left to become head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks. Self came to Champaign-Urbana after three seasons at Tulsa, where he led the Golden Hurricane to an NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2000. His previous head coaching experience included a four-year stint at Oral Roberts (1994-97). Self became the first Big Ten coach since 1912 to win Big Ten titles in each of his first two seasons. In his first season, Self led the Illini to a 27-8 record and a share of the Big Ten championship. Illinois earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the Elite Eight. His second team saw the Illini again share the Big Ten title and advance to the NCAA Sweet 16 with a 26-9 record. In his third season, Illinois won its first Big Ten Tournament title in 2003 and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. He left Illinois to become the head coach at Kansas in April 2003.

HEAD COACH BRUCE WEBER

Bruce Weber was hired at Illinois on April 30, 2003, succeeding Bill Self, who had left to become head coach at Kansas. Weber arrived in Champaign after five seasons as head coach at Southern Illinois, where he led the Salukis to Missouri Valley Conference titles in 2002 and 2003, and to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2002. In his first season, Weber led the Illini to an outright Big Ten championship, NCAA Sweet 16 appearance, and final record of 26-7. Weber earned consensus National Coach of the Year honors in his second season in 2005, directing Illinois to its first-ever appearance in the national championship game and to the Final Four for the first time since 1989. The Illini went 37-2, tying the NCAA record for wins a season (since broken). Illinois won a second consecutive outright Big Ten title, also won the Big Ten Tournament, and received the overall No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament. Illinois won its first 29 games of the season, stood atop the national polls for 15 straight weeks, and was ranked No. 1 in the final 2005 Associated Press poll. The Illini also made NCAA Tournament appearances under Weber in 2006, 2007, 2009 and 2011. Following his Illinois tenure, Weber spent 10 years as head coach at Kansas State.

HEAD COACH JOHN GROCE

(5 YEARS, 95-75, .559)

John Groce was hired at Illinois on March 29, 2012. He arrived in Champaign after four seasons at Ohio, where he guided the Bobcats to a pair of MAC Tournament titles and NCAA Sweet 16 in 2012. Groce led the Illini to 23 victories in his first season, including a Maui Invitational title and buzzer-beating victory over No. 1-ranked Indiana, and highlighted by an NCAA Tournament Round of 32 appearance. The Illini then made consecutive NIT appearances, winning 20 games during Groce's second season and finishing .500 in Big Ten play his third season. His fifth and final UI squad also earned an NIT bid. Groce is now the head coach at Akron.

HEAD COACH BRAD UNDERWOOD
(8 YEARS, 165-101)

Brad Underwood was hired as Fighting Illini head basketball coach on March 18, 2017. He came to Illinois from Oklahoma State, where he led the Cowboys to a 20-win season and the NCAA Tournament. That followed a dominant run at Stephen F. Austin where Underwood led the Lumberjacks to Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles in each of his three seasons. He compiled an 89-14 record at SFA, tied for the most wins by a head coach in his first three seasons at an NCAA school. It took just three seasons for Underwood to return the Illini to the Top 25, as his 2020 squad won 21 games and 13 during league play to finish one game back of the Big Ten title. Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, leading the Big Ten in wins with a school-record 16 conference victories, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, the second-highest final ranking in school history. Underwood had another banner year in season five, leading Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship, the program's first regular-season title in 17 years. Illinois went 15-5 in league play and finished the year ranked No. 16 in the AP poll with a 23-10 record. Illinois again won 20 regular season games and made the NCAA Tournament appearance in 2023. Underwood's Illini won 29 games in 2024, marking the third-winningest season in school history. He captured his second Big Ten Tournament title and led Illinois to the NCAA Elite Eight, finishing the year ranked No. 6. Illinois won 22 games in his eight season in 2025, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

ORANGE KRUSH

"The Orange Krush are super, scintillating and sensational! They are a fantastic sixth man for the Fighting Illini. However, what makes them so unique is their willingness to help people in need and helping out with various charities, such as the V Foundation. Yes, they are special. To put it in 'Vitalese' they are awesome, baby, with a capital A!"

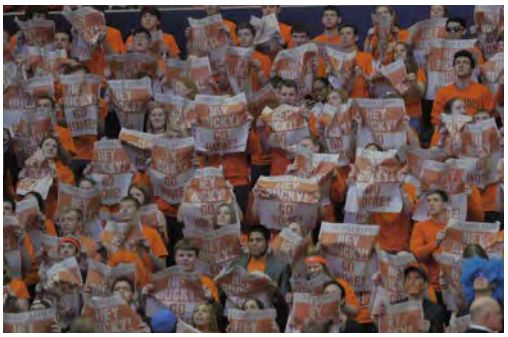
— ESPN Analyst Dick Vitale

Orange Krush is a student-run cheering section of dedicated Illini students who love basketball, with more than 900 students standing courtside to cheer on the Illinois men's basketball team.

Not only is the Orange Krush considered one of the nation's premier basketball student sections, it also is a charity foundation as well. Founded in 1998, the Orange Krush Foundation is a University of Illinois student-run foundation intent on improving the quality of life for the youth and young adults of the Champaign-Urbana and campus community by providing financial support and contributing community service to area not-for-profit organizations.

Since the inception of the Orange Krush Foundation, Krush members have raised and donated more than $2.8 million to charity. The Orange Krush Foundation is almost entirely student-run and has donated funds to worthy causes including The V Foundation for Cancer Research, The Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Coaches vs. Cancer and the Developmental Services Center. In addition, the Orange Krush Foundation also funds scholarship.

Krush began its scholarship endeavors by creating the Matthew Heldman Memorial Fund, which honors Matthew Heldman, a point guard for the Illini's 1998 Big Ten Championship Team, who was tragically killed in a car accident in 1999. The fund, in his name, endows a scholarship for a future Illini basketball player. After five years, the Orange Krush fulfilled the $250,000 commitment, and the fund is fully endowed.



During the 2003 season, the Orange Krush Foundation announced the formation of the Rod Cardinal Sports Medicine Fund. This fund pays tribute to Rod Cardinal, who was the University of Illinois men's basketball athletic trainer for 30 years. The endowment benefits all student trainers at the University of Illinois, which in turn benefits all varsity athletic teams. Krush completed fundraising for this fund in 2006.

At the conclusion of the 2005 season, Orange Krush created the Louis and Dawn M. Weber Student Manager Enhancement Fund. Named in memory of former coach Bruce Weber's parents, the fund benefits Illinois' men's basketball managers.

Orange Krush began its newest endeavor in 2009, announcing the Lou Henson Coaching Development Endowment Fund. Named in honor of former Illinois head coach Lou Henson, this $500,000 pledge will be used as a fund to promote the basketball coaching profession within the younger generation, supporting people entering the coaching profession in positions such as graduate assistant, director of basketball operations and video coordinator.

Visit illinipride.com to view a list of all charities that have benefited from the Orange Krush Foundation and how each group has utilized their donation.

LOU HENSON COURT

The University of Illinois Division of Intercollegiate Athletics announced on Aug. 24, 2015 the naming of the basketball court at State Farm Center as Lou Henson Court. The court was officially dedicated at halftime of Illinois' first home game in the renovated State Farm Center, on Dec. 2, 2015 versus Notre Dame in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge. The Lou Henson Court logo includes Henson's signature accented by his patented orange blazer.

Henson was hired at Illinois on April 5, 1975. What followed was a legendary 21-year career in charge of the Orange and Blue. He amassed a 423-224 record, highlighted by 12 NCAA Tournament appearances, a total of 15 postseason bids, and eleven 20-win seasons. Illinois basketball was one of the nation's most dominant programs during Henson's tenure, earning a top-5 seed in the NCAA Tournament seven straight years from 1984 through 1990.

Henson's Illini won the 1984 Big Ten Championship and advanced to the Elite Eight. His most successful season came with the Flyin' Illini, who won a then-school record 31 games and advanced to the 1989 NCAA Final Four. Henson still ranks fifth all-time among Big Ten coaches in both total wins (423) and conference wins (214). He was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame on Nov. 20, 2015 in Kansas City and part of the Illinois Athletics Hall of Fame Class of 2018.

Henson passed away on July 25, 2020 at the age of 88.

A total of 18 Fighting Illini basketball players have earned the accolade in the history of the award, including Edward A. Williford, the University of Illinois' first recipient of the award. Since 1982, Illinois has recognized a male and female Athlete of the Year. In 1993, the awards were renamed the Dike Eddleman Athlete of the Year awards in honor of the 11-time UI letterwinner and Olympian.
